

PLEASE do not allow our Indiana Telephone Privacy Law to be banished. I DO NOT want our Indiana law lowered that would allow those stressful calls to begin again! If a national law is to be enforced, it should be as affective as our Indiana law.

My husband and I do NOT appreciate phone calls from solicitors in our home. Before the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law was enforced, we were nearly fearful to answer the phone each day! It was so stressful trying to 'get rid' of solicitors in a polite manner.

PLEASE DO NOT LOWER OUR Indiana standards for telephone privacy.

Marcia Callis